

Return to Practice Guidelines

Effective July 1

Guiding Principals

1. The health and safety of all members of the Special Olympics community is paramount.
2. Participation is completely optional and we respect, understand and fully support anyone who is unable to or uncomfortable returning to practice.
3. Anyone considered high-risk (per the COVID-19 Participant Risk Form & Code of Conduct) is strongly discouraged from practicing in-person until there is little or no COVID in your community.
4. Guidance is based on current medical information and state guidelines at the time of publication and are subject to change as guidance evolves.
